

Announcement to all citizens of Kyoto Prefecture regarding the Typhoon No.10 (Shanshan)

Please remain alert to the information being released by the Meteorological Agency and local authorities. If an evacuation is deemed necessary, please do not hesitate and immediately head to an evacuation site. In particular, we urge those who need extra time when evacuating, such as the elderly and people with disabilities, to evacuate as soon as possible.

Please also review your everyday disaster preparedness such as confirming your designated evacuation area, evacuation route and emergency survival bags.

Furthermore, please avoid going outside when unnecessary. In unavoidable circumstances, please check for updated weather news and traffic information before going outside.

Last but not least, In the event of an emergency, when evacuating please act in the interest of others and check in with those around you.
